

FLAG ESCORTS NEEDED!

The Ceremonies team are looking for up to 30 Guides, Scouts, Rangers and Network members to be flag escorts during the opening ceremony.

Do you have a young person who has shown themselves to be an outstanding member of your organisation this year? Then we want to hear from you!

Criteria

Leaders can nominate a young person for any of the following reasons:

- Triumphed over adversity
- Achieved a prestigious award (e.g. Queen's Guide or DofE)
- Outstanding contribution to the unit
- Embodied the Guide and Scout Laws
- Must be able to attend a rehearsal on site at 5pm Friday 29th July
- Attending Charnwood 2016

Job Description

- To escort one of the international flags into the main arena for the Opening Ceremony of Charnwood 2016
- Act as a buddy for the International Guide or Scout chosen to carry their flag. Internationals will not be able to attend the rehearsals so escorts will be leading them where to walk on the night
- Enthusiastic, friendly, responsible
- Comfortable with standing on stage in front of the whole camp

How do I apply?

Leaders can nominate by sending the following information to gemmalawrenson@hotmail.com by May 31st 2016.

- Name, age, contact email and unit/group of Guide/Scout
- Reason for nomination
- Name and contact email of nominating leader

Please check with the young person first that they are comfortable taking on this role before nominating!

Thanks! - Gemma and Jack, Ceremonies Team Leaders
